ARTICLE GUIDELINES – NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Please read the instructions carefully before selecting to add your article.

Submission requirements

Authors should confirm that their article is original work, does not violate any contractual agreement, and has not been published or is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. A copyright agreement must also be signed and returned to the journal editor after acceptance of article for publication. The journal accepts submissions only from individual journal subscribers (SAJHE).

Presentation

Authors should submit their articles online only. Please ensure that the electronic file is the latest and final version. A title page should carry the full title (12 words) of the article, its author(s) and relevant institutional affiliation and contact details (mailing address, telephone and fax numbers and email address). The first page of the text proper should carry the title of the article but not the name(s) of the author(s). The article should be typed in double spacing (including all notes and references), and between 5,000 and 7,000 words in length. All notes should be kept to a minimum and appear at the end of the article before the list of references. Figures and tables should not be embedded in the text, but saved as separate files at the end of each article with their references. References

The Chicago Manual of Style author-date system is used, that is, references are cited in the text by the author(s) name(s), the year of publication and the page numbers(s) in brackets, for example, (Apollonia 1973, 370), as a key to the full list of all references that appears at the end of the article. The list of references should include every work cited in the text. Ensure that dates, spelling and titles used in the text are accurate and consistent with those listed in the references.
