GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Articles on all aspects of human behaviour and experiences are welcome for consideration. Authors are encouraged to be as succinct as possible, and should retain a copy of their own article.

Manuscripts (in duplicate and double-spaced) should be written in English and be sent via email to ifepsy@yahoo.com

The Ife Center for Psychological studies (I.C.P.S.) publisher of the Journal, IFE PSYCHOLOGIA, is a non-profit organization. It shares part of the cost of publication of an author’s own paper in the journal with the author(s) concerned. Publication costs include detailed sub-editing, typesetting, initial proofing, mailing, printing, collating and binding.

A complimentary copy of the issue of Journal in which author’s article appears will be forwarded postage-free to the Author(s) immediately upon publication.

Review of manuscripts will be done very quickly and the decision will be communicated to the author promptly.

Notes should be avoided, but where necessary, should be listed at the end of the paper before the reference. Works cited should be referenced following the format below:

All data in photographs, tables, drawings, figures and graphs must be simplified and stated.

It is a condition of publication that manuscripts submitted to this journal has not been published and will not be simultaneously submitted or published elsewhere. By submitting a manuscript, the author(s) agree that the copyright for their article is transferred to the publisher, if and when the article is accepted for publication.
